Goal

Assist faculty, department heads and office managers in their understanding of the promotion process for instructional and research career NTTF faculty.
Objectives

Participants will be able to…

a) Define NTTF promotion, and the policies that dictate the process.

b) Describe the timeline for the promotion process, and what happens at each step.

c) Assemble an e-portfolio.

d) Avoid confusion regarding often misunderstood components of the promotion process.

What is promotion?

Eligibility includes 6 years of service at minimum of .3 FTE average (maximum of 3 terms per AY for 9-mo contract, 4 terms per AY for 12-mo contract).

Promotion is elective (except for Librarians). Employment can continue at current rank.

Candidate initiates the process by June prior to the year in which promotion is sought.

Promotion requires excellence, not purely years of service.

What are the different types of promotion?

Instructional vs Research vs Librarian

Step 1 to Step 2 Examples:
Instructor to Senior Instructor I
Research Assistant to Senior Research Assistant I
Assistant Librarian to Associate Librarian

Step 2 to Step 3 Examples:
Senior Instructor I to Senior Instructor II
Senior Research Assistant I to Senior Research Assistant II
Associate Librarian to Senior Librarian
What is the overall timeline for promotion?

Initiation of the process – June

Preparation of file – Fall term

Unit level review – Fall/Winter term

Dean/Director level review – Winter term

Provost review and decision – Spring term

Notification – June 1
What is the overall timeline for promotion?

NTTF Promotion Timeline

The timing of the preparation, submission, and evaluation of the promotion dossier follows a timeline similar to the tenure-track-faculty promotion and tenure process. NTTF promotion files will be accepted on a rolling basis. Files that are received in the Office of the Provost and Academic Affairs (OPAA) (for instructional NTTF) and in the office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation (VPRI) (for research NTTF) between February 1 and April 1 will be decided on by the provost by June 1. The provost will notify the candidate in writing, with promotion taking effect at the beginning of the next fiscal year or with the next contract renewal, whichever comes first.

All promotion reviews have three levels of review: unit level, college or vice president level, and provost level. Typical cases may follow this rough timeline:
Initiation of the process – June

Candidate notifies unit head in the spring prior to the year when promotion is sought.

No later than June 15 for 9-mo
No later than June 30 for 12-mo

CBA Article 19. Non Tenure Track Faculty Review and Promotion

Career non-tenure-track faculty (NTTF) will be eligible for promotion after accumulating six years of employment as a faculty member at or above .3 average FTE per year. Career NTTF instructors may accrue FTE during fall, winter, and spring terms, however, not during summer term. The six years of employment do not have to be consecutive.

Career NTTF who will have completed five years of employment as a faculty member at or above .3 average FTE per year, and who have an expected appointment of .3 average FTE or greater for the sixth year, should initiate the promotion process by June 15 of the fifth year if a promotion review in the sixth year is desired.

Career NTTF who have already completed more than five years of employment as a faculty member at or above .3 average FTE per year may initiate the promotion process by June 15 of any year.

Directions:
1. The candidate works with the office/business manager to complete this form.
2. The office/business manager completes the table below to show contracted FTE for each month. Nothing over 1.0 FTE per term will count towards the average FTE (e.g., for an FTE of 1.1, enter only 1.0). The FTE average for each year must be at least .3 in order for it to count towards eligibility. Summer is not included in this calculation.
3. The office/business manager submits the form to the department/unit head/dean with a notice of intent to be considered for promotion review.

4. The department head signs and dates the form, then returns it to the office/business manager.
5. The office/business manager emails the completed form to HROps@uoregon.edu for verification of FTE.
6. HR Ops returns the signed, verified form to Sonja Runberg or Bryan Evans, who then forwards the form to the office manager for inclusion in the dossier.

CBA Article 19, Non Tenure Track Faculty Review and Promotion

Career non-tenure-track faculty (NTTF) will be eligible for promotion after accumulating six years of employment as a faculty member at or above .3 average FTE per year. Career NTTF on 12-month contracts receive FTE at 12 months per year. The contract begins with the date of hire. The six years of employment do not have to be consecutive.

Career NTTF who will have completed five years of employment as a faculty member at or above .3 average FTE per year, and who have an expected appointment at .3 average FTE or greater for the sixth year, should initiate the promotion process by June 30 of the fifth year if a promotion review in the sixth year is desired.

Preparing NTTF Promotion Files

Following successful pilot studies, we have moved to full digital submission for all promotion cases. To support preparation of digital dossiers, we have created PDF portfolios for the primary dossier, containing several “fillable” forms and the various dossier sections to which the appropriate files may easily be added. We have also created a PDF portfolio for the supplementary file. Given the range of supplementary materials typically provided, this portfolio in essence provides a table of contents behind which documents may be uploaded. Recognizing that some materials may not be conveniently available in digital form, provision of some or all supplementary materials in print form is still permissible.

For planning purposes, it is important for Academic Affairs to have solid information about the number and type of promotion cases it may anticipate. When beginning the assembly process, please send an email to Pam Palanuk (palanuk@uoregon.edu) containing the following:

- candidate(s) full name(s) and UO ID number(s)
- promotion (e.g., Instructor to Senior Instructor I)
- department name

HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY NTTF REVIEW AND PROMOTION POLICIES

HPHY: December 15, 2014
HS: 2-25-15
HPHY: May 5, 2015

This policy applies to all represented faculty and is intended to comply with all provisions of Article 19 of the CBA. To the extent there are any discrepancies or inconsistencies, CBA Article 19 controls for represented faculty. This policy also applies to all unrepresented faculty, unless a university-wide policy exists that contradicts the terms of this policy.

If review or promotion procedures change during the course of a faculty member’s employment, they may elect between current criteria and those in effect during the six years prior to the initiation of a given review or promotion process.

CAREER NTTF CONTRACT REVIEWS

1. Career NTTF will be reviewed in each contract period for consideration for renewal, or once every three academic years, whichever is sooner. If a career NTTF member has multiple contracts in a year, only review per fiscal academic year is required. The review will consider the faculty member’s performance since the last review.

2. If a career NTTF member has a promotion review, they does not need to also have a contract renewal review during the same period. However the contract renewal decision must be made independently of the promotion decision.

3. For contract renewal reviews, the faculty member may choose to submit a curriculum vitae and a personal statement containing information relevant to their performance of assigned duties and responsibilities.

4. The following elements will be considered in evaluating teaching:

Frequently asked Questions:

If the promotion is unsuccessful, can I reapply the following year?

No. See CBA Article 19, Section 27: “NTTF bargaining unit members who are denied promotion may reapply for promotion after having been employed by the university for an additional three years at an average of .3 FTE or greater….”

Is the promotion an “up or out” process for NTTF?

Only for Librarians; not for Instructional or Research NTTF.
If an NTTF in my Department has been meeting minimum expectations, should they expect a successful promotion?

Promotion is for demonstrated excellence as outlined in unit policy.

When is the latest that I can withdraw my application for promotion?

Any time prior to the Provost’s decision.
I would like to reclassify an NTTF in my unit who is up for promotion from Instructor to Lecturer. Can I do that as part of the promotion process?

No. Reclassification and promotion are separate processes and have different criteria.

Is my unit required to have a unit wide vote?

Only if it is part of your unit policy. Each unit should have a committee vote, except in the case of Research Assistant or Research Associate classifications.
I am in my fourth year, and I would like to apply a year of previous service at another institution towards promotion eligibility, but I did not negotiate prior credit when I was hired. Can I go up early?

No. This is decided at the time of hire (CBA Article 19 section 8).

If I have an extremely meritorious NTTF in my department, can I encourage them to go up early?

Yes. Accelerated review can occur with Provost approval (CBA article 19 section 7).
Problems to Avoid

Last year files were sent back if:

If there was no committee vote recorded.

If there was no substantive evaluation written up by committee.

If the heads letter had not independently evaluated the candidate, while also summarizing the committee recommendation & the outcome of committee vote.
